What I enjoy about gymnastics	I enjoy the everyday challenge. Some days are better than others, but I look forward to learning and mastering new skills. One of the things I've learned through the sport of gymnastics in the incredible amount of dedication and time it takes to achieve success. I work hard. My coach works hard. And together as a team we go into every meet to perform our best.

My goals for gymnastics	My goals for gymnastics: My immediate goal for the 2012 season is to master my skills and place within the top 20 at J.O. Nationals. Long term I'm striving to add a good scholastic and leadership track record and combine that with gymnastics to attend the U.S. Air force Academy
